

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air "Stolen Honor" is another example of what happens due to media consolidation.

Because they use the public airwaves free of charge, Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules. Clearly, the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
